

20 Ward Crescent, Muirhead

Family home with unique design.

This custom built home is perfect for those that have teenagers/adult kids still living at home, or perhaps the grandparents have moved in to help with the little ones, the home combines large resort style communal areas, with sperate habitable areas to increase privacy and independence.

The open plan living area is airconditioned and full tiles and includes banks of louvers on one side and large dual sliding doors on the other creating an amazing breezeway to keep the home cool. The patio is massive and finished with quality decking and cooled by large fans. Overlooking the full sized inground pool this area really pulls he home together and celebrates the territory lifestyle.

The individual bedrooms are very large allowing occupants to have a significant space of their own. The finishes throughout the home are very modern and the kitchen is fitted with quality appliances for those that enjoy cooking. There is loads of storage in the kitchen with mostly draws to help with accessing all of the bits and bobs and overhead cabinets to increase the storage space further. A built in coffee machine adds to te function of the kitchen and includes quality Bosch appliances.
