One of the standout features of this property is the outdoor space, with the decked entertaining area providing a comfortable setting to relax or entertain while overlooking the private backyard. The generous yard offers more room than you would typically expect from townhouse living and provides plenty of scope for those wanting outdoor space without the upkeep of a large traditional block.

Conveniently located near schools, shops, public transport, parklands and essential amenities, this home offers a peaceful Murrumba Downs lifestyle without compromising on convenience. Combining space and privacy, 36/37 Wagner Road is well worth inspecting.
