

103 Byangum Road, Murwillumbah

Classic 1950s Charm, Spectacular Views & Endless Potential

Set in a peaceful elevated position along Byangum Road, this charming 1950s residence captures beautiful views and the most stunning sunsets across the surrounding hills and district, while offering an exciting opportunity to create your ideal home.

Upstairs, the home features three bedrooms, open-plan living and dining, timber flooring and high ceilings and ornate cornices that reflect its original character. The living area flows seamlessly onto a massive timber deck, creating an impressive outdoor living space overlooking the colourful native gardens and spectacular mountain views.

The upgraded kitchen features an oversized oven, while downstairs provides valuable flexibility with a fourth bedroom, home office or studio - ideal as a teenage retreat, guest space or creative workspace.

Surrounded by beautifully established native gardens designed to attract birdlife and bring colour to the property, this is a home offering
