Fresh Character in Wickham Street

Blending timeless charm with modern comfort, this beautifully updated character home offers all the features lovers of older homes appreciate, without compromising on practicality. Polished timber floors, VJ walls, high ceilings, decorative fretwork, leadlight casement windows and a cosy wood heater all add to the home's warm and inviting appeal. Thoughtfully modernised throughout, it retains its original character while meeting today's lifestyle expectations.

The home offers three bedrooms plus versatile sleepout and sunroom spaces that could easily be converted into additional bedrooms, a second living area, home office or ensuite. A functional kitchen adjoins the dining room, while the centrally positioned lounge creates a comfortable hub for everyday living.

Set on a fully fenced 1,008sqm allotment, the property also features a concreted under-house area with ample height for entertaining, storage or workshop space. Conveniently located close to Nanango State Primary School, Nanango Hospital and within walking distance to the town centre, this is a rare opportunity to secure a genuine character home with both history and comfort in equal measure.
