

Narooma, 2/169 Princes Highway

Federation Style Villa

To suit investors and downsizers.

This free-standing villa offers a convenient central location, single level living and loads of convenient features. This gorgeous federation style brick villa features two large bedrooms to complement the open plan kitchen and living areas that make this a perfectly proportioned home.

This lovingly maintained property has internal access from the large single garage which has previously been used as a studio space.

With virtually zero maintenance required, this property will be suitable for the security conscious, retirement living and investor. This really is a lovely, comfortable home.
