

133 Merilba Street, Narromine

Ready for a New Beginning

Stepping into 133 Merilba Street, Narromine is like stepping back in time. This original weather board family home is full of character and charm, offering an exciting opportunity for someone looking to restore and renovate a classic Narromine property.

Featuring three bedrooms, high ceilings and timber floorboards throughout, the home retains many of the traditional features that make homes of this era so appealing.

The kitchen includes an original slow-combustion stove, while the fireplace and enclosed verandah add warmth and character and provide a glimpse into the home's history.

Outside, the cottage-style gardens create a lovely established setting, while side access and second Street access add valuable practicality.

The location is another standout feature. Positioned directly opposite the rugby grounds, tennis courts and netball courts, sporting facilities are quite literally across the road.
