SOLD OFF MARKET

This property has been successfully sold off market, demonstrating the strength of our qualified buyer database and the continued demand for quality units in Nelson Bay.

By matching the right buyer with the right property, without the need for public advertising, we were able to achieve an excellent result for our seller with minimal disruption and complete discretion.

If you're considering selling and would like to explore an off-market approach, or if you're searching for a property before it reaches the open market, we'd love to help.
