Elevated Living with Filtered Views Across Pittwater

A broad canopy of gums frames leafy Pittwater and Salt Pan Cove views, where boats drift quietly beyond the treetops and changing light filters through the landscape throughout the day. Elevated within its natural setting, this timber home has been thoughtfully refreshed while retaining a relaxed, grounded character. Walls of glass draw the outlook deep into the interiors, creating bright, generous living spaces that open to expansive entertaining decks suspended among the trees. A pared-back palette, timber flooring and soft natural finishes shape a calm atmosphere across the three-bedroom layout, while the move-in-ready presentation leaves nothing to do except settle in and enjoy the outlook from every angle. Moments to all that Newport village has to offer from cafés, boutiques and restaurants to marinas, surf beaches and buses all close at hand.
