Private Newport retreat immersed in treetops with sweeping Pittwater views

Tucked away at the end of a peaceful Newport cul-de-sac, 'The Canopy' is a beautifully private four-bedroom retreat immersed in established gardens and framed by captivating Pittwater views. Accessed exclusively by inclinator, there's a wonderful sense of leaving the world behind as you rise through the greenery to this Monument coloured weatherboard home, seemingly suspended amongst the treetops.

Inside, whitewashed timber floors, plantation shutters and a fresh coastal palette create a relaxed feel, while expansive glazing draws the surrounding landscape and Pittwater into the home. A light-filled sitting area provides a peaceful place to retreat, while several of the bedrooms capture leafy water views. The main bedroom opens to its own private decked courtyard, creating a secluded garden escape.

At the heart of the home, generous open-plan living and dining unfolds around a streamlined contemporary kitchen with Dekton surfaces, induction cooking with integrated downdraft extraction, DishDrawer dishwasher and integrated refrigeration. A freestanding
