

9 Graves Street, Newton

3 1 3

Sold by Luke Mitchell & Claude Buccella of LJ Hooker Adelaide Metro

Set on an impressive 979m<sup>2</sup> approx. block with a 24.14m frontage, this classic three bedroom home presents a rare opportunity in one of Newton's most convenient and tightly held pockets. This double brick home offers flexibility with formal living and dining zones, the home offers the charm of yesteryear while inviting a fresh vision for the future.

The North facing rear ensures year-round natural light, creating an ideal foundation for future extensions, outdoor entertaining, or redevelopment (STPC). Flowing through the carport offers a versatile garage complete with its own kitchen and toilet, with potential to convert into a rumpus room, home office or the perfect man cave.

What we love:

- Expansive 979m<sup>2</sup> block with wide 24m frontage
- North-facing rear, ideal for natural light and future entertaining
- Detached garage with kitchen and toilet
- Formal lounge, dining and separate living area

Newton is renowned for its balance of convenience and lifestyle. Just moments from Newton Village Shopping Centre, local cafes, eateries, day-to-day living couldn't be easier. Quality schooling options are close by, including Rostrevor College, Charles Campbell College and a selection of primary schools. Families will also appreciate nearby parks, reserves and walking trails that bring the outdoors to your doorstep.

Excellent public transport options and proximity to the CBD make this home desirable for professionals, families and investors alike. Whether you're seeking a substantial family home site, a renovation project, or exploring development potential (STPC), this is a property that ticks every box.
