

North Balgowlah, 6 Warringah Street

North to rear home in a prime position adjoining reserve.

Set on 607sqm of exquisitely landscaped gardens with near-level lawn flowing out to Manly Dam Reserve at the rear, this 4 bedroom residence was built from the ground up to fully optimise its tranquil north rear setting. Exceptionally bright and airy with a sweeping living and dining space, casual dining area and easy flow to sun-drenched rear verandahs on both levels with sublime bushland vistas, the residence is comfortably modern yet presents scope to infuse your creative decorative finesse. Nestled in one of the area's most exclusive dress-circle settings with direct access to bushwalking and mountain biking trails from the rear gate, it is only 250m from Balgowlah North Public School and 300m from North Balgowlah Village shops.

- Rendered Tuscan-inspired facade matched with manicured hedges and conifers
- Impressive double-height entrance foyer with a large under-stair storeroom
- Sweeping living and dining space runs front to rear and overlooks the gardens
- Glass sliders open to a wide covered rear terrace with northerly bushland views
