36 Coke Street, Norwood

Single-Level Luxury, Perfected #36 SOLD. #34 Available

Last chance for customisation before construction commences!

Only one of two detached Torrens titled homes now available

When Norwood Developments puts its name to a project, buyers pay attention, and with good reason. Their reputation for craftsmanship and considered design has become the benchmark in the eastern suburbs. Now, they're unveiling something genuinely hard to come by: two premium single-level detached residences in the heart of Norwood.

Single-level luxury in this suburb is almost impossible to find, and when it does appear, it's typically decades old and ready for a full overhaul. That's what makes 34 and 36 Coke Street so special. Thoughtfully designed, architecturally striking, and finished to a high specification, these homes deliver true low-maintenance living without sacrificing scale, comfort or high-end amenity.

Each residence revolves around a flowing, single-level floorplan with three generous bedrooms, a true master suite, study, expansive open living zones, plus a formal lounge and that unmistakable Norwood
