Ideal for extended families or multi-generational living, the property also includes a granny flat, providing valuable flexibility for elderly parents, adult children, guests or independent living arrangements.

Stepping outdoors, you'll discover a spectacular covered and screened alfresco entertaining area that seamlessly connects the home to its stunning surroundings. Overlooking manicured lawns and magnificent established gardens, this inviting space provides the perfect setting for year-round entertaining with family and friends.

Adding further appeal is a charming rustic cabin complemented by a substantial outdoor fireplace and traditional wood-fired pizza oven, creating a unique gathering place for memorable family celebrations and relaxed weekend get-togethers.

For those requiring additional space for vehicles, hobbies or storage, the property features substantial shedding capable of accommodating caravans, motorhomes, boats and multiple vehicles, while still providing ample workshop and storage areas. Whether you're a traveller, boating enthusiast, tradesperson or simply need room for all the extras, this impressive infrastructure offers endless practical benefits.

Sustainability and efficiency have not been overlooked, with the home benefiting from solar hot water, solar power and battery storage, helping to reduce energy costs while supporting modern eco-conscious living.

The property is fully fenced with dog wire and is exceptionally well serviced by an abundant water supply, including a reliable bore and numerous rainwater tanks, ensuring the beautiful gardens and expansive lawns remain lush throughout the year.

Offering a rare combination of executive-style living, lifestyle appeal and practical family functionality, this outstanding acreage property presents an exceptional opportunity to secure your own private sanctuary within easy reach of Maryborough's amenities.

A property of this calibre is seldom offered to the market. Inspection is essential to fully appreciate the quality, space and lifestyle on offer.
