

25 George Street, Oaks Estate

Room to Grow

Beautifully renovated from front to back, this two-bedroom home sits on a huge, level block at the end of George Street and offers an opportunity that's hard to match in tightly held Oaks Estate. Every part of the home has been thoughtfully updated, giving it a fresh, modern feel while still keeping that quiet, village-style charm the area is known for.

The block itself is a major drawcard. Rarely do you find this much space in such a private position, and it opens the door to a range of future options. Whether you're thinking long-term extension, additional structures or exploring development potential (subject to approvals), the footprint is here to work with.

For now, the property is already extremely practical thanks to the large shed that comfortably fits four cars —perfect for trades, storage, or anyone needing serious workshop space. The flat layout of the block makes access easy, and there's still plenty of open yard left over for gardens, pets or entertaining.

A quality renovation, a massive block, a quiet end-of-street position and an area where properties rarely come to market —this one is a standout offering in Oaks Estate.
