The kitchen flows easily to the adjacent underfloor heated laundry, the second of 4 bathrooms & meticulously landscaped grounds facing the mountains. Luxury and comfort continue outdoors. A covered veranda wraps around living areas with a louvered pergola adjacent to an outdoor fireplace - a perfect place to socialize in private, sheltered grounds.

If you need another reason to fall in love with this wonderful property, let it be the spacious apartment - housed above the large double garage. Like the main home, this stand-alone building has been renovated to a high standard, and boasts rural and ocean views, generous lounge, kitchenette, and bathroom.

This has served the previous owners as a valued AirBnB, but also offers other options such as overflow accommodation, separate entertainment zone or cottage. Replicating this home's quality and features through new construction would exceed this current market price, call today to secure this architectural masterpiece.
