CHARACTER, COMFORT & SPACE

This red brick home offers an inviting combination of character, space and comfort, set on a generous section with established surroundings and plenty of room to enjoy.

The practical kitchen combines with the dining area to create an easy everyday space, while the large separate living room provides plenty of room to relax.

Well-equipped for year-round comfort, the home is mostly double glazed and includes two heat pumps, a wood burner and HRV system.

The bedrooms are generously proportioned, with the master offering an impressive amount of built-in storage, while the third single bedroom has practical storage solutions. A family bathroom services the home, while a separate laundry adds further practicality to the layout.

Outside, a spacious deck provides an excellent setting for entertaining or enjoying the established garden surroundings, with a generous lawn offering plenty of usable outdoor space. A standalone double garage provides excellent parking and storage, complemented by
