

O'Connor, 38 Nardoo Crescent

A Character Filled Cottage with Potential

Positioned on a lovely tree lined street, this 1950s character filled weatherboard home is bursting with potential and is waiting for its new owners to write its next chapter. Will you be breathing new life back into the home by renovating it with your own personality and tastes or will you be building a new modern residence on this generously sized block in a blue-chip locale? The choice is yours!

Conveniently positioned just moments away from the Lyneham Shops, public transport, the popular local schools and with Dickson and the City at your fingertips, this home will be perfect place for creating your vibrant Inner North Lifestyle.

I look forward to meeting you at the next open home and discussing the next chapter you are planning on creating.
