Architectural charm meets waterside beauty

Commanding one of Old Beach's most spectacular waterside positions, 12 Churinga Waters Drive offers lifestyle, space, and architectural charm in a serene riverside setting. Designed and built in 1987, this expansive family home remains in beautifully preserved original condition, showcasing timeless design, generous proportions, and breathtaking water views that define its enduring appeal.

At the heart of the home lies the kitchen, featuring a walk-in pantry and centrally placed between two living zones—each offering flexibility for dining, entertaining, or quiet retreat. This clever layout allows for formal and informal living, with each space enjoying garden or courtyard outlooks. A gas fireplace in the main living area adds warmth and ambiance, while underfloor heating throughout ensures year-round comfort. An incredible sunroom is beautifully framed by a glass ceiling—perfect for entertaining or simply soaking up the surrounds. A striking pitched-glass ceiling in the hallway draws natural light deep into the home, creating a dramatic and welcoming entry.

The master suite is a true retreat, privately positioned at one end of the home and thoughtfully designed for relaxation. A standout feature is the luxurious ensuite, complete with a round spa bath, curved glass block feature wall, dual vanities, and views across the garden. Ample built-in storage and direct access to the grounds complete this peaceful, light-filled space.

The home offers three additional bedrooms, all well-sized and thoughtfully positioned for comfort and privacy. These rooms are serviced by a central bathroom that mirrors the home's signature curves, with a separate bath and curved shower, and the convenience of a separate toilet. A large laundry with generous built-in storage adds everyday practicality. Solar panels support efficient living, and a ducted vacuum system adds modern convenience.

Outdoors, the property continues to impress with a separate garage featuring an upper loft offer ample opportunities. A shed, greenhouse, and two large garden beds cater to the green thumb, while the rear gate provides direct access to the picturesque walking trail that borders the river's edge.

Timeless in its design, rich in character, and set on a generous block with incredible water views—this is a rare offering that combines classic architecture with a breathtaking natural setting.
