

21/10 Taronga Place, O'Malley

Town Home Living in a Remarkable Setting Surrounded by Nature

Privately positioned at the upper end of the tightly held O'Malley Park complex, this beautifully maintained four-bedroom townhouse offers something increasingly difficult to find - genuine privacy, an exceptional connection with nature and a home that feels distinctly its own.

Backing directly onto the reserve, 21/10 enjoys an outlook that is both leafy and serene, with established greenery providing a wonderful sense of space and separation from the homes beyond. Elevated within the complex, the position is particularly special, offering a quiet retreat while remaining remarkably convenient to Woden Town Centre, Canberra Hospital and the area's highly regarded schools.

From the moment you enter, there is an immediate sense of quality and care. The home has been exceptionally well maintained and thoughtfully presented, retaining the individuality and character that set it apart from other properties.

The generous split-level floorplan provides an excellent balance of formal and informal living, with natural light and views of the surrounding landscape creating a calm backdrop throughout. Formal lounge and dining spaces provide an elegant setting for entertaining, while the spacious family and meals area opens naturally towards the outdoor entertaining spaces and reserve beyond.

The kitchen is well appointed and practical, positioned to connect with the everyday living areas while retaining a sense of separation. Four generous bedrooms all accompanied with built in robes provide flexibility for families, guests or those seeking dedicated work-from-home space, with the master bedroom enjoys its own ensuite with spacious spa bath and excellent storage.

Outside, established gardens and the reserve-side position create a private and peaceful environment that is difficult to replicate. Whether enjoying a quiet morning coffee & entertaining friends on the back deck or simply watching the seasons change across the landscape from the front balcony, the setting is one of the home's defining attributes.

A double garage, additional basement storage and a well-considered floorplan complete a property that combines space and privacy.

Set in one of Canberra's most prestigious enclaves, O'Malley offers a peaceful, leafy setting with, proximity to Canberra Hospital, top schools, parklands and the Woden Town Centre and an easy commute to Canberra's CBD.
