greenery and a primarily flat landscape provide endless room for children, pets or further alfresco additions. A whimsical cubby house adds another family-friendly touch!

Upstairs, five large built-in bedrooms include a colossal primary master with walk-in robe and magnificent ensuite featuring a dual vanity and luxurious spa bath. A second bedroom includes its own private ensuite, providing an ideal second master option, whilst the contemporary family bathroom features full-height tiling and a separate bath.

Downstairs, a huge sixth bedroom with walk-in robe sits within its own private wing. Complete with a well-appointed kitchenette, living and dining options, full bathroom and private entry options, this versatile zone is ideal for accommodating multiple generations or creating an independent living arrangement with potential to enhance rental income.

Additional features include exceptional storage and ducted air-conditioning, along with an attached double garage and carport. Access continues to the rear where a triple-bay shed and additional concrete parking easily accommodate extra vehicles, trailers or boats.

Offering the peace and freedom of acreage without compromising on convenience, this property delivers an enviable lifestyle with space to spread out and grow. Popular schools, shopping, dining and everyday amenities are just minutes away, with major transport corridors providing easy connection to Brisbane and the Gold Coast. Combining scale, versatility and superb accessibility, this is acreage family living at its best!
