

4 Mckenzie Street, Palmerston

Room to Live, Work, and Play

If space, flexibility and value are high on your wish list, this could be the opportunity you've been waiting for.

Set on a generous 2,026m² section, this home gives you room to spread out without feeling hemmed in or overlooked. Inside, the open-plan kitchen, dining and living area creates a welcoming hub for everyday life, with a log burner and heat pump providing excellent year-round heating options.

All three bedrooms are comfortable doubles. The main bathroom is complemented by a separate toilet conveniently located within the laundry, adding practicality for everyday living.

Outside, the generous section offers plenty of space for kids and pets to roam and explore, while two sheds provide excellent storage. An additional building adds even more versatility and could be used as a hobby room, workshop, studio or potential sleep out.

Prior offers considered.

With a practical layout, substantial section and plenty of scope to make it your own, this property offers an exciting opportunity for families, hobbyists, first-home buyers or anyone simply looking for more space.

Vacant and ready for a new chapter, this is your chance to be king of your own castle -- with the space to live, work, play and grow.

Prior offers considered.
