- Nearby public transport, including bus services along Algester Road
- Convenient access to shopping, dining, childcare and major connecting roads

Positioned in a quiet, leafy street on a massive 770m² block, 4 Tantanoola Street instantly catches the eye with wide frontage, neat lawn, and standard-setting yard space.

Inside, tiled living and dining areas offer low-maintenance durability for busy everyday life. The light-filled front living room is a comfortable haven for family relaxation, flowing effortlessly into a spacious open-plan kitchen and dining layout. The kitchen comes fully equipped with modern appliances including a dishwasher, ample cabinetry, and a casual breakfast bar for meals on the go.

Accommodation includes 4 carpeted bedrooms, all appointed with ceiling fans. Three of the bedrooms feature built-in wardrobes, while the primary bedroom serves as a quiet parental retreat with its own walk-in robe and private ensuite bathroom. The main bathroom is smartly fitted out with a glass-framed shower, separate bathtub, and adjacent toilet to eliminate morning rush-hour queues.

Stepping outside, the covered rear patio provides an inviting, shaded area to entertain guests, host weekend barbecues, or relax while watching kids and pets play across the vast expanse of lawn. The sheer scale of the fully fenced rear yard opens up endless possibilities, whether you dream of installing an in-ground pool, erecting a large shed, or exploring scope for extra accommodation down the track (STCA).

Located for maximum suburban convenience, you can walk just 350m (approx. 5 minutes) to express bus stops on Algester Road (including routes 130, 131, and N130) for seamless transit into the Brisbane CBD. By car, you are roughly 1.6km from Drakes Parkinson and local shops, with quick access to Calamvale Central, Grand Plaza, local schools including Stretton State College (3.1km or 5-minute drive), and major motorways linking you across greater Brisbane.

For scale, convenience, and endless outdoor potential, you couldn't wish for a better family foundation! Contact Kay Chung today!
