

186 South Western Highway, Picton

Character, Space & Practical Living

Positioned on a quarter acre (1,012sqm) lot, zoned service commercial with existing residential use rights, this solid 1965-built residence blends classic character with everyday comfort and excellent outdoor utility. Constructed with weatherboard and fibrous cement cladding under a tiled roof, the home delivers timeless street appeal while offering practical upgrades suited to modern living. The service commercial zoning also caters to buyers looking to run a business from their own property or future development potential.

Inside, the three-bedroom, one-bathroom layout feels warm and inviting, highlighted by beautiful timber floors that enhance the home's character. Comfort is assured year-round with split system air-conditioning and a cosy slow combustion wood fire - giving you flexible climate control in every season.

Front and side verandahs provide shaded spaces to unwind, while the rear patio is ideal for entertaining and overlooks a backyard designed for lifestyle living. A double garage/workshop offers excellent storage or workspace, complemented by a covered carport and secure gated access. Established vegetable gardens and a chook run add a touch of self-sufficiency and charm.
