The kitchen and dining area forms the practical heart of the home, while the character bathroom and laundry area adds personality. Outside, the large patio provides a sheltered area for entertaining or relaxing throughout the year.

A major feature is the drive-through access leading to the fully enclosed rear yard and large powered workshop. This valuable addition provides excellent storage and workspace for tools, vehicles, hobbies or projects, while the double access gates make moving trailers and equipment into the backyard considerably easier.

Pinjarra offers the convenience of an established regional town with supermarkets, specialty shops, cafés, schools, childcare, sporting facilities, medical services and the Murray District Hospital all within the local area.

The town's riverside setting, historic character and community atmosphere continue to attract residents seeking an alternative to the busier coastal suburbs. Pinjarra also provides convenient road connections to Mandurah, the Kwinana Freeway, Perth and the wider South West.

Mandurah is within comfortable driving distance, giving residents access to major shopping centres, the train station, Peel Health Campus, beaches, restaurants, entertainment and the Peel-Harvey waterways. Dwellingup, Lane Poole Reserve and a variety of trails and nature-based attractions are also readily accessible.

With a tenant already in place, established rental income and the added appeal of a large powered workshop, 6 Kingia Place offers investors an opportunity to secure a well-located Pinjarra property with practical features that are frequently sought by tenants.

The property is being sold subject to the existing fixed-term tenancy. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquiries regarding the lease, rental return, outgoings and investment suitability.
