The cleverly concealed laundry and practical kitchenette give way to the spacious, light-filled dining and lounge space which opens directly onto the large, covered, breezy balcony.

Accessed via plantation shutters and stunning timber-framed bi-fold doors, the balcony offers views of the inlet and rainforest-clad ranges in the distance.

Plantation shutters also help screen the air-conditioned bedroom from the main living area where you can rest and recharge after a day of shopping, eating, or exploring the region.

Complementing the bedroom perfectly is the large ensuite that features both a refreshing shower and deep spa bath for a little more pampering. The twin sink vanity also ensures everyone has their own space to indulge.

Providing the perfect base from where to launch your tropical adventure, Mantra on the Inlet is a popular choice with visitors to Port Douglas.

The main street location puts shopping, dining and the famous Sunday Market on your doorstep, while the marina (approx. 400 metres) provides your entry point to the Great Barrier Reef. Approximately 800 metres in the other direction will have you on the golden sands of Four Mile Beach.

And if relaxing around the pool and barbeque is more your scene, it has you covered there as well.
