

15 Katherine Close, Ranelagh

Ranelagh - Spacious, Spotless and Ready for Family Life

Ant's "Fluff-Free" Description...

Let's keep this simple.

If you're a young family looking for a home that's easy to live in, easy to maintain and doesn't come with a renovation hangover...this is worth your time.

Built in 2012 and set in a quiet cul-de-sac, 15 Katherine Close is a practical, well-kept home that does exactly what it should.

Three bedrooms. Two bathrooms. Open-plan living. Level block.

Nothing complicated. Nothing overthought.

The layout works. The main bedroom sits separately with its own ensuite. The other bedrooms are positioned where they should be. The living, dining and kitchen connect properly and open straight out to the deck and backyard.

And importantly - the yard is actually usable.

Flat. Secure. Enough space for kids, pets, a trampoline, a half-built cubby house that never gets finished...you get the idea.

The kitchen is functional, the finishes are clean, and the home has clearly been looked after. Heating and cooling is sorted, insulation is in place, and the energy rating is solid - which means you're not freezing in winter or sweating through summer wondering where it all went wrong.

And yes - solar is already installed, which helps take a bit of the sting out of the power bills.

Outside, you've got a concrete driveway, easy access, and a setup that just works for day-to-day life.

This isn't a "look at me" home.

It's a "live in me" home.

And in this market, that's exactly what a lot of buyers are chasing.
