

Redland Bay, 132 Main Street

Stunning Character-Filled Queenslander Close to the Foreshore

If you're looking for a character-filled home just moments from the foreshore, look no further than 132 Main Street. Exclusive agent Ming Body is delighted to present this three-bedroom Queenslander that captures everything Queensland and Redland Bay are all about. With easy access to local shops, transport links, and the ferry for Straddie trips, you'll want to take a closer look at this one.

Step up to the white picket fence of the 571sqm block, and you'll be impressed by the immaculate gardens and the timberwork that is a testament to this beautiful home. With stunning fretwork waiting to greet you, you enter the front verandah and through the open-plan living space. With high ceilings and warm polished timber floors, there is a great atmosphere in this home. The modern kitchen has been tastefully selected to work with the existing timber panelling on the ceiling and VJ walls in the bedrooms. The three bedrooms are huge with plenty of built-in storage, with the main bedroom benefitting from a split system air conditioner.

The various room dimensions are perfect for creating intimate settings, whether for dining, study, or living spaces. French doors from the dining area lead onto a beautiful covered deck. This space is ideal for relaxing, enjoying a drink, and listening to the birdsong from the gardens. Heading down the steps into the rear garden, there is more wonderful flora to admire, and under the house, it provides ample storage and more usable space for entertaining. The single lock-up garage also opens from here to the stairs.

There is character in abundance, and if you appreciate the classic style of a Queenslander, you will fall in love with 132 Main Street. Contact Ming Body today to make this house your new home.
