Country Living at it's finest in Riddells Creek

Set on approximately 4.4 acres of prime Riddells Creek real estate, this substantial single-level brick residence pairs generous proportions with established gardens, a circular driveway and a lifestyle made for families who want room to breathe.
The house comprises 5 bedrooms, multiple living zones, a stunning kitchen and a covered entertaining deck set within a private, park-like setting, all just minutes from the township.

From the moment you arrive a sweeping driveway curves past manicured lawns and a rose-lined garden island to a deep verandah and double timber entry doors. Inside, a wide hallway with polished hardwood floors runs the length of the home, and large windows frame the greenery at every turn.

The kitchen is a showstopper, with a huge waterfall-edge island that anchors the space, and a glass splashback, a long run of drawers and full-height cabinetry make storage easy. Natural light pours in from the sliding doors to the deck.

It flows into the open meals and family area, where bay windows look out over the gardens, and there's a built-in study nook with shelving
