property is move-in ready while remaining low-maintenance for both owners and tenants alike.

Comprising three bedrooms and one bathroom, the home sits securely on steel posts and offers two-car off-street, secure accommodation. Outdoors, the property is fully fenced, providing privacy, security and additional usability for families or tenants with pets.

The real standout here is flexibility and future upside. With two titles already in place and additional vacant space available, there is exciting potential to further enhance the property with a granny flat or additional accommodation/storage options, adding even greater value and return over time.
