

Roma, 16 Miscamble Street

Renovated Queenslander Beauty

Prepare to be captivated by this exquisite four-bedroom, two-bathroom Queenslander that seamlessly marries heritage charm with contemporary sophistication. This architectural gem has been meticulously renovated to celebrate its distinguished character whilst embracing modern living.

Step through the charming white picket fence onto the welcoming front veranda, where established gardens create an enchanting first impression. Inside, soaring ceilings and traditional VJ walls provide an elegant backdrop for gleaming polished timber floors that flow throughout this remarkable home.

The thoughtfully designed master suite serves as a private sanctuary, featuring a generous walk-through robe, sophisticated ensuite, and dedicated study space. The heart of the home reveals an intelligently planned open-plan configuration, where kitchen, living, and dining areas unite to create an effortless entertaining environment.
