

21 Bromeliad Cct, Roma

Style, Space and Sunset Views

Welcome to one of Roma's most coveted quiet pockets, where western countryside views stretch as far as the eye can see and sunsets put on a nightly show worth every moment of your attention.

Boasting four generous bedrooms and two well-appointed bathrooms, this home has been designed with both family living and effortless entertaining in mind. The separate lounge area, complete with sliding doors, offers a versatile retreat for those moments when the household needs a little breathing room — or when someone insists on watching that reality show you simply cannot stand.

Ducted air-conditioning flows throughout the entire home, ensuring year-round comfort no matter what the Maranoa weather decides to throw your way. Whether it is the searing heat of a Queensland summer or those surprisingly crisp winter mornings, you will always find refuge in perfectly tempered rooms.

The layout strikes a beautiful balance between communal gathering spaces and private sanctuaries, making it ideal for growing families or those who appreciate having room to spread out. Step outside and let the sweeping views wash over you as the sun dips below the western horizon, painting the countryside in shades of amber and gold.
