household essentials organised.

Outside, the western side double carport features clever privacy screening that not only protects your vehicles but shields the home from the afternoon sun – complementing the recently installed solar panels that will significantly reduce your energy bills! The property also includes a handy garden shed for storing your outdoor equipment and a rear yard with separate fencing, perfect for keeping pets or children safely contained while they play.

Additional features that make this home truly comfortable include evaporative air conditioning to keep you cool during those warm Queensland summers and adjustable stumps providing peace of mind.

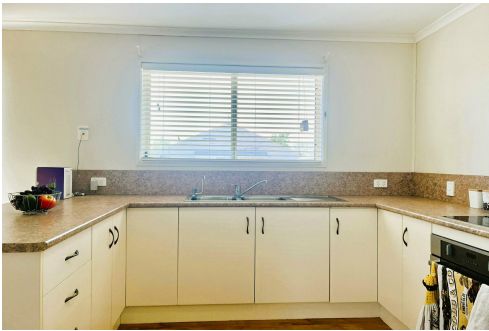

With nearby amenities including parks, schools and local services all within easy reach, this low-maintenance property offers the perfect balance of comfort and opportunity in small, humble community.
