

Russell Island, 40 Aquamarine

A Grand Queenslander with Stradbroke Views

Welcome to a truly special home — a beautifully restored Queenslander that sits proudly in one of the best spots on Russell Island. From the moment you arrive, you'll notice the character and charm that only a classic Queenslander can offer.

Perched in a peaceful, elevated position, this home enjoys sweeping views across the calm waters to North Stradbroke Island. It's the kind of place where mornings are spent on the verandah with a coffee in hand, soaking up the sunrise, and evenings are for cool breezes and quiet reflection.

Recently refreshed with a full exterior repaint, the home's traditional charm shines through — from the polished timber floors to the classic VJ walls and elegant archway in the lounge. High ceilings create a sense of space and light, while the layout offers a cozy blend of open living and private retreat.
