The secondary bedrooms are equally generous, and there's even a dedicated study and media lounge for work, play, or quiet evenings in. Every space feels considered, with built-in storage and smart zoning to give you room to grow—or simply room to breathe.

Outdoor Living Done Right

Step outside and the lifestyle continues. The covered spa area offers year-round enjoyment and is fully fenced for peace of mind—perfect for kids, pets, or keeping your bubbles safe from your furry friend. Surrounded by nature, the backyard blends privacy with a sense of openness, thanks to the adjacent council reserve that frames your view with trees instead of rooftops.

More Room Than You'll Know What To Do With

This property doesn't just give you a home—it gives you options. Two double garages, a double carport, and a powered rear shed mean storage is no issue. Car collector? Boating enthusiast? DIY hobbyist? Bring it all. There's even space to transform part of it into your very own retreat, bar, or creative studio.

The block itself is huge— offering over 1,100m² of fenced, usable land. Keep it open and enjoy the space, or explore future projects. With no immediate neighbours on one side, you've got flexibility—and freedom.
