

52 Harvey Street, Russell Island

Affordable North End Living — Great Value on 544sqm

Positioned on a 544sqm block in the popular north end of Russell Island, this home offers an affordable opportunity to enter the market in a convenient location. Just a short walk to the bowls club and only minutes from local amenities, it's an ideal option for first home buyers, investors or those looking for a property they can add their own touch to.

Inside, the home features three bedrooms and a practical two-way bathroom, along with a separate toilet for added convenience. The functional floor plan includes separate living and dining areas, providing plenty of space for everyday living.

A ramp to the front entrance offers easy access, while the generous block provides room to enjoy the outdoors or create your own garden space.

Priced to meet today's market, this property presents excellent value in one of Russell Island's most desirable locations. Whether you're looking to invest, renovate over time or secure an affordable home in the north end, this is an opportunity worth inspecting.
