

Rutherford, 21 Bairds Close

Exchanged In Cooling Off Period

Tucked away in a peaceful one-entry street and proudly positioned on the high side of the road, 21 Bairds Close is a solid family find just moments from all of Rutherford's major shopping, retail, and local schooling.

This four-bedroom home is tiled throughout for low-maintenance living and features built-in robes and ceiling fans in each bedroom, with the master suite also enjoying its own private ensuite.

The footprint is ideal for growing families, with a generous open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area that's kept comfortable year-round thanks to split-system air conditioning and Solar panels are installed to assist with your power bills this winter.

For the astute investor among us, this appears to be an ideal investment property with great potential to return circa $650 per week.

Step outside to a large rear alfresco space, perfect for laid-back BBQs or keeping an eye on the kids and pets in the well-sized, easy-care yard. A standout feature is the drive-through access to an impressive rear shed-ideal for tradies, tinkers, or a future teenager retreat/granny flat conversion (STCA).

With everything you need close by and all the right bones for comfortable family living, this home is ready to go.
