

57B Squadron Crescent, Rutherford

Where Personality Meets Practical Living

Effortlessly blending style and individuality, this beautifully updated four-bedroom villa proves that great design doesn't need to come in a large package. From the moment you step inside, you're greeted by sleek floating floors that carry throughout, setting the tone for a home that feels both cohesive and considered.

At the heart of the home, a fully renovated kitchen takes centre stage, complete with striking feature tile splashbacks, quality appliances and a layout that maximises both form and function with the offset dining area & breakfast bar for casual eats. The central open-plan design connects seamlessly through the living and dining zones, with the addition of the 4th bedroom or standalone media depending on your needs just elevates this one further.

Each of the bedrooms are of good size while the master enjoys the added benefit of its own ensuite & walk through robe, delivering that all-important second bathroom for families or guests. I.

What truly sets this property apart, however, is its personality - a home filled with quirky character and unique touches that come together in all the right ways. It's a home that feels different,
