

54 Florence Terrace, Scotland Island

A Life of Beauty and Serenity

With a wide frontage to the water and beautiful water and bushland views, this enchanting home captures the romance of island living. Pretty gables, colonial doors opening onto wide verandahs and landscaped gardens create a storybook setting, with character and charm at every turn.

Spacious living and dining areas blend through to the outdoors, where wide covered decks blend indoor and outdoor spaces for all the family to find a space to retreat and soak up the beautiful surroundings. Multiple seating areas invite you to lounge, read, write or simply watch the wildlife and the changing light across the water. Away from traffic and surrounded by nature, this is a place to slow down and savour life.

At the rear, a generous garden seating area with a water feature offers another peaceful retreat for relaxed afternoons or gatherings with friends.

Four bedrooms provide space for family and guests, with three upstairs and a fourth downstairs opening onto the veranda.

Accessible by ferry or private boat, Scotland Island offers a warm, vibrant community where creatives find inspiration and people from all
