It opens to a wide deck, looking across the water and yachts to Church Point.

The home is packed full of extra features like underfloor heating, a chiminea Terrace, a weather protected mosaic terrace, an inclinor, study with angled skylights, and lush gardens.

Bell Wharf is footsteps along the waterfront where you can catch a ferry for a snap three minute trip to Church Point or take the scenic route around the island and bays. for the more energetic, it's a five minute paddle in a kayak to restaurants, the corner store, post office and cafe.

Sitting in the heart of Pittwater, surrounded by Ku-ring-gai National Park and some of Sydney's most sought after waterside suburbs, Scotland Island offers raw beauty and a wonderful community spirit and events including cafes in the park, art, garden and music festivals, the famous Scotland Island Dog Race and fireshed dinners to mention a few.

Give us a call to jump in our boat and head across to this beautiful paradise. Weekdays will feel like the holidays - this is the life you deserve.
