

11 Buchan Street, Seaton

626sqm Corner Allotment - Renovate, Subdivide or Build Your Dream Home!

Welcome to this charming 1955 Austerity style home, ideally positioned between the city and the sea in a sought after suburb surrounded by reserves, shopping precincts, local schools and convenient transport options.

Set on a 626sqm corner allotment and zoned "General Neighbourhood" there is the option to look at subdividing now or in the future or with a wide 22.91m frontage a very versatile allotment to build your dream home (All STC).

This property presents a wonderful opportunity to complete the current renovations and further enhance the existing home. Inside, the home provides a wonderful canvas featuring timber flooring throughout, a wide and welcoming entrance hall and generous bedrooms with ceiling fans. The spacious lounge room is filled with natural light thanks to its curved windows, while the separate formal dining room, also featuring curved picture windows, offers an inviting space for entertaining.

The original eat-in kitchen provides the perfect opportunity to update and transform it into the true heart of the home. The home also retains its original bathroom with terrazzo flooring, along with a separate laundry with provision for a second shower and WC (requiring completion) and a separate sunroom.

Outside, the property features neat and tidy grounds, an entertaining area and a handy workshop/shed, adding further flexibility for storage, hobbies or future improvements. With dual driveways the corner block allows for easy and secure off street storage of larger work vehicles, caravan or boat behind the electric gate.

A fantastic opportunity to secure a character home in a highly desirable location and add your own personal touch.
