

Sheffield, 128a Main Street

Sheffield Charm Meets Comfort

Set in the heart of Sheffield, this charming cottage style home blends comfort, practicality and that welcoming country feel the area is known for. Built in 2007 the home offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms a sunroom, and a secure backyard with established gardens. The living spaces are filled with light, with bay windows, a front veranda, and a warm combination of double glazing, solar panels, solar hot water, reverse cycle heating and a cosy woodheater. The kitchen and dining flow into the sunroom, perfect for a quiet read or morning coffee, while the internal access garage adds everyday convenience.

Sheffield's friendly community, strong artistic identity and stunning views of Mount Roland make it more than just a place to live. With local schools, shops, and services all nearby, this one is a comfortable home with everything that makes country living feel easy.
