

199 Ocean Drive, South Bunbury

Architectural Coastal Luxury

Commanding a stunning oceanfront position, this architecturally striking residence showcases modern Mediterranean elegance with uninterrupted coastal views. A beautifully composed facade featuring natural stacked stone, warm timber accents and soft architectural lines creates an immediate sense of sophistication, while the elevated design captures the surrounding seascape.

Inside, high ceilings and quality engineered timber flooring enhance the light-filled interiors, where soft arches, custom niches and carefully curated finishes deliver timeless style and warmth. Expansive stacker doors open to the elevated balcony, creating seamless indoor—outdoor living and allowing the main living spaces to fully embrace the breathtaking ocean outlook.

Designed for both luxury and versatility, the home also features a fully self-contained ground level ideal for guests, extended family or private retreat living. Paired with beautifully finished micro cement bathrooms and refined architectural detailing throughout, this exceptional residence offers a rare opportunity to experience sophisticated coastal living at its finest.
