

40 Goldsmith Street, South Bunbury

Development Potential in Sought-After South Bunbury!

Positioned on a generous 2,024m² block in sought-after South Bunbury, this double brick home presents an exciting opportunity for investors, developers, or buyers looking to secure a large parcel of land with future potential. Zoned R20/30, the property offers excellent development possibilities while still providing a comfortable residence with a functional layout.

The home features a formal lounge and dining area at the front, flowing through to an open-plan kitchen and living space designed for everyday living. The main bedroom includes built-in robes and a private ensuite, while three minor bedrooms are positioned in a separate wing off the living area, two of which include built-in robes. The living area extends out to a covered patio, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor space ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Set on an expansive block complete with a tennis court, the property offers outstanding scope for subdivision, redevelopment, or future improvement (subject to relevant approvals).

Features:

- Generous 2,024m² block
- Zoned R20/30 with excellent development potential
