

Springbrook, 33 Banksia Road

Choice of two titles and dual income

Just a short walk away from Springbrook's famous Twin Falls, is this beautiful 3-bedroom large family home, with national park at the back of the block.

Clad in western red cedar, with cathedral ceilings, and recently decked out, this is the perfect opportunity for a young family with a wonderful primary school nearby, or for professionals working from home with the option of dual income, or even retirees wanting to share the house with their grandkids.

You have the option of purchasing the house by itself (offers around $800,000), or adding the vacant land next door (on a separate title) for $333,000 to add to your space to roam or build on in the future.

The original cabin was hand built in 1984 by the head park ranger from slabs milled from New England Mountain Ash tree found on the property. The 2-story exterior is clad in
