

23 Dulwich Road, Springfield

Character-Filled Family Home with Enduring Potential

Positioned within a quiet, leafy pocket of one of the Central Coast's emerging suburbs, this immaculately maintained residence presents an exceptional opportunity for growing families, first-home buyers or those seeking long-term upside in a well-connected setting. Set on a level 519sqm north-facing parcel, the home combines the enduring quality of solid double-brick construction with immediate comfort and exciting scope to further enhance over time.

Defined by soaring cathedral ceilings, timber flooring and abundant natural light, the interiors reveal multiple living and entertaining zones centred around a welcoming lounge with combustion fireplace. A practical family layout flows effortlessly to covered outdoor entertaining and low-maintenance gardens, while the oversized garage and workshop space offers exceptional versatility with potential for a studio, home office or future income opportunity (STCA).

Enjoying an easy lifestyle setting moments to schools, Erina Fair, Gosford CBD and Terrigal Beach, this is a compelling opportunity to secure a quality home within an area continuing to experience strong growth and transformation.
