

St Helens, 6 Erythos Grove

Prime Location, Prime Opportunity

We are delighted to present an outstanding investment opportunity in a fantastic area of Erythos Grove in St Helens.

As you walk through the front door, you are immediately welcomed by the combined living and kitchen space, this is the central hub of the home. There are also two spacious bedrooms, with the master bedroom having a generous built-in robe, providing ample storage space. The house also comprises a combined functional bathroom and laundry, ensuring a comfortable living experience. Additional features include two garden sheds, perfect for extra storage. The land area of 608 sqm offers plenty of room for expansion or potential development (STCA). With glimpses of Georges Bay currently on offer, the potential to maximise these views even further from extending upward are definitely worth investigating by the astute buyer.

One of the key selling points of this property is its proximity to the water and town centre.
