

78 Tasman Highway, St Helens

Breathtaking Outlook

Nestled in the picturesque town of St Helens, this exceptional home presents a fantastic opportunity for families seeking a spacious retreat with stunning water views and arguably one of the best locations on offer. This impressive 5-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom house, built in 1986, stands on a generous block of 1295 sqm, offering a blend of comfort and convenience that is hard to surpass.

As you step inside, the home welcomes you with a warmth that is complemented by its sturdy brick construction and elegant tile roof. The generous layout includes bay windows that frame the breathtaking outlook, filling the living spaces with natural light and the serene vistas of the azure waters just across the road.

The property boasts a self-contained unit downstairs, perfect for dual living arrangements, providing privacy and space for extended family or guests. Most bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes, while new blinds add a touch of modern sophistication throughout the house.

Outdoor enthusiasts will be thrilled with the private mooring, which will be available to the lucky purchaser, ideal for boating aficionados. Additionally, the home offers ample storage with additional garage and workshop spaces, as well as a boat or caravan carport.
