

5 Newman Street, St Marys

Immaculate home with sheds galore and large garden

From the second you step onto this property, you'll appreciate the time and effort put into the maintenance of the home, outbuildings and garden. The windows are in perfect condition, the weatherboards are freshly painted and the roof is clean. It's a tribute to the builder-owner who has lived in it for many decades.

All three bedrooms have built-in wardrobes, and the large galley kitchen has two electric hot plates and loads of bench space for convenience. The home has a lovely family-friendly feel, in keeping with the town of St Marys. The entrance/sunroom provides a bonus area which could be utilised as a quiet reading or hobby room. The extensive manicured garden is famous in the district for the flowers it produces every year, and the variety of fruit trees provides the owners a profusion of produce. The external laundry contains the second toilet and offers plenty of storage space.

An abundance of shedding is provided by three single garages, a garden shed plus the separate workshop which has three-phase power. With 6kW solar, you'll be rejoicing every time your tiny power bill turns up. Thanks to the positioning of the buildings and zoning, subdivision could also be an attractive option for the astute purchaser. Steeped in history and recognised as a haven for people seeking an alternate lifestyle, St Marys is just fifteen minutes from spectacular
