

181 Trouts Road, Stafford Heights

Elevated Views; Outstanding Finishes.

Relax, de-stress, don't go through the process of building, and move into your own brand new home. With the cost and timeline of construction becoming ever more uncertain, take the opportunity here to secure your own luxurious property. A timeless floorplan is on offer, finished with beautiful fixtures that separate this home from its competitors.

The property's amalgamation of features create a sense of unique grandeur. High ceilings (including cathedral ceilings in two bedrooms), high doorways, and wide hallways show that no expense was spared and allow in natural light. The spacious floorplan is maximised in every respect, with over 300sqm of under-roof area. The main bedroom is an example of the home's outstanding design, with enough space to function as a parents' retreat, replete with large walk-in wardrobe and lovely ensuite. The raked ceilings in two of the bedrooms are another signifier that no expense has been spared.

Visible from the main bedroom is a stunning view of the suburb towards the city skyline. The low-maintenance backyard means you can spend more time entertaining and enjoying the finer things in life, rather than worrying about outdoor upkeep.
