

181A Trouts Road, Stafford Heights

Brand New Home; Hamptons Perfection.

This awe-inspiring home sets expectations sky high as you first step foot inside. An immense 5.79m void with a hand-picked, boutique, modern chandelier greets you. Wide double doors create a sense of grandeur. Two large windows let in beautiful natural light and welcome you into the space. Two more banks of windows guide you through the entryway into the large open-plan living/dining area. The home's tone is immediately set.

Lovely, engineered blonde hickory flooring provides this brand-new home with a touch of yesteryear, mirroring the pre- and post-war homes surrounding it.

This lovely feature guides you to the large kitchen which is also bathed in natural light. Beautiful stone extends across the benchtops and large island bench, while timeless brushed nickel and stainless steel fixtures are throughout. Excellent Miele appliances complete the kitchen. All of this continues to flow out to the large covered entertaining area. And this is perched on a low-maintenance and elevated 337sqm block.

Downstairs is replete with high ceilings, a third bathroom which doubles as ensuite off the guest bedroom, and large double garage.

Upstairs, the theme of light, air, and grandeur continues. A large multi-purpose room with family-oriented linen cupboard is on offer. Great district views create a lovely horizon through this family room. Lush carpet is throughout this upstairs space, with a luxurious feel underfoot.

The main bedroom is a true parents' retreat. Situated at the eastern end of the home, it is complete with walk-in wardrobe and ensuite. The ensuite is finished with floor-to-ceiling tiling, large mirror, tiled feature wall over the lovely cabinetry, and large shower. The shower niche and free-standing bath all create a package of total relaxation.

Another excellent design feature is the dedicated balcony off the main bedroom. A lovely view of the district extends towards the city skyline. Enjoy a morning coffee from this elevated position.

The upstairs space is complete with a large main bathroom and powder room with adjoining linen cupboard.

The low-maintenance backyard means you can spend more time entertaining, and less time worrying about when you have to get the mower out!

You can very easily walk to so many amenities nearby. A bus stop connecting you to the rest of the inner-north is in close proximity, with North West Plaza, North West Private Hospital and many other boutiques within walking distance too.
